All proceeds from the J.D. Powell Memorial Golf Tournament go towards providing financial scholarships to students on all GNTC campuses.

J.D. Powell was one of the pioneers of technical education in the Northwest Georgia area. He started with Coosa Valley Technical College in 1967 and served in various roles. In 1969 he was the director of the college. He was named the first president in 1987 and served until 1994. This tournament is named after him to honor his dedication to technical education and helping to make Georgia Northwestern Technical College what it is today.
